

Starfish the Best Listener in the Sea

A black and white line drawing of a starfish surrounded by various sea creatures including a turtle, octopus, pufferfish, seahorse, and a bearded fish, all in an underwater setting with coral and bubbles. The starfish is in the center, smiling, with small circles on its arms. To its left is a turtle with a patterned shell and a smiling face. Above the starfish is a small, round fish with a mustache and a beard, also smiling. To the right of the starfish is a large octopus with a smiling face and several tentacles. Below the starfish is a pufferfish with a smiling face and a small shell on its side. In the bottom left corner is a seahorse with a striped body and a smiling face. The background is filled with various sea plants, coral, and bubbles, creating a lively underwater scene.
